HOLY FATHER'S PRAYER INTENTIONS SEPTEMBER 2016

Centrality of the Human Person: That each may contribute to the common good and to the building of a society that places the human person at the center.

Mission to Evangelize: That by participating in the Sacraments and meditating on Scripture, Christians may become more aware of their mission to evangelize.

IN TESTIMONIUM...

The special prayer for peace

“Lord Jesus Christ, who said to your apostles ‘Peace I leave you my peace I give you’ look not on our sins but on the faith of your Church and graciously grant her peace and unity in accordance with your will, who live and reign for ever and ever. Amen.”

which in the Extraordinary Form of the Mass the priest prays in a low voice immediately after the Agnus Dei and in the Ordinary Form of the Mass he prays out loud immediately after the Pater Noster made its appearance since the eleventh century, first of all in German territory. It replaced an older prayer for peace. From then on it recurred regularly, even in Italian Mass plans, and thus was introduced into the Missal of Pius V.

Note that the Missal of Pope Pius V was produced in the year 1570. That same special prayer for peace, however, was missing from many liturgical books still in the late Middle Ages. Prior to the Missal of 1570, which means prior to the Council of Trent, there would have been a multiplicity of liturgical books that were in use for the Holy Mass throughout the Latin Rite. Sometimes prayers were kept in books (called Sacramentaries) separate from other books that just had readings (called Lectionaries). Sometimes all the sacred texts required for Holy Mass were in the same volume and might have been described as a Missale Plenum or a “complete Missal”. The Council of Trent and Pope Saint Pius V sought to organize some of the chaos and suppressed any liturgical traditions that were less than two hundred years old and assembled all the sacred texts for the Roman Rite into one book: the Missale Romanum ex decreto sacrosancti Concilii Tridentini restitutum or “The Roman Missal Restored According to the Decrees of the Holy Council of Trent.”. In short hand we call it the Missal of Pius V.

Fr. Jungmann continues...

It is the first formal prayer in the Ordo Missae addressed to Christ. This address to Christ which is already found, in a different way, in the Agnus Dei, and which has here been continued obviously in view of the Communion about to be received, is retained also in the following Communion prayers.

This prayer for peace is a prayer for the priest in preparation for giving the pax. It presupposes the kiss of peace (emphasis mine), which starts here at the altar and thence is continued through the church.

May the peace of Christ and the Church abound in our hearts!

Fr. Christopher J. Pollard

ST. JOHN THE BELOVED WOMEN'S COUNCIL

ALL women of St. John the Beloved are encouraged to be come "members" of the Women's Council. It's just a fancy name for the women of St. John, but as such, we get our own budget (which we obtain through fundraising and donations -THANK YOU) and have some freedom to plan events that we know women appreciate, such as the ever popular Women's Evenings of Reflection. We also have the responsibility for other events in the parish such as:

The Annual Christmas Bazaar: The purpose of this event is not simply to raise money for the Women's Council (although that's an important one!), but to help our parish in its mission to draw in the community, give a venue for other parish groups to raise money/awareness, a venue for parishioners to sell their personal crafts, locals to sell religious items, to support small businesses, and to come together as a parish family to begin our preparation for Christmas in the proper context. Mark your calendars for Saturday, November 19, 9:00 am-3:00 pm. (If you'd like to be a vendor, please contact Danielle Aguilar via email at: womenscouncilofsjb@gmail.com. Vendors from last year should have already received the applications via email.)

Parish Receptions: We support our clergy by hosting the various receptions proper to parish life such as First Ordination Mass Receptions, Welcomes/Farewells for rotating clergy, Feast Days, and so forth.

Last year, thru the generosity of our parishioners we were able to collect and donate $2,500.00 for Hope in Northern Virginia, Inc. thru our Mothers Day Baby Shower.

But mostly, our goal as women is to support each other in our pursuit of holiness and friendship. We share news about upcoming events, speakers, and protests. We share devotions, prayers and articles that have helped us to grow in faith and understanding and might help others. We encourage each other, scold each other, learn from one another and PRAY for each other. Each woman has gifts, experiences, and insights that are different from the next and can help open our eyes to another dazzling facet of Christ. We need these experiences. In other words, we need YOU!

Please get involved this year by volunteering to help with an event, sit on a committee, forward an article or devotion for the Facebook page, share an idea, or simply take advantage of some parish opportunity that you haven't tried before. Join us on Wednesday, September 28 at 7:45 p.m. in the Adult Education room for our first annual board meeting of the year. Please contact the Women's Council if you'd like to talk about opportunities via email at: womenscouncilofsjb@gmail.com.

HAVE YOU LOST A BELOVED SPOUSE AND ARE LOOKING FOR A BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT GROUP

Healing from your grief of losing a spouse is not easy. It's a long, sometimes painful process. The death of a spouse can be numbing and devastating. You may have feelings of sadness, loneliness and abandonment. Gracie Ortiz, Director of Senior Services for Catholic Charities of Arlington is looking to see if there is enough interest to start a bereavement support group for those who have lost a spouse. We are trying to ascertain whether there is sufficient interest in the parish to start such a group at St. John the Beloved. Please contact Gracie at 571-970-8734 or e-mail her at gortiz@ccda.net if you are interested in participating in this support group.

God bless and protect all our family members and parishioners who are serving in the military and civil service for our defense, especially...
