HOLY FATHER'S PRAYER INTENTIONS JUNE

Universal – Social Networks

That social networks may work towards that inclusiveness which respects others for their differences.

IN TESTIMONIUM...

Memorial Day was originally known as Decoration Day, a day to bring flowers to graves and honor the dead. As the unofficial start of summer is also occasions my reminder about how we decorate our living bodies. Next week when we celebrate Corpus Christi I will offer some more annual thoughts about the virtue of reverence with respect to the Body, Blood, Soul & Divinity of Jesus Christ.

Our bodies are sacred. We worship the Lord with our bodies as well as our souls. Prostrating. Kneeling. Standing. In silence and in song. With arms outstretched and with hands over our faces. Our souls adorned with virtue and our bodies attired with the virtue of modesty.

How would you dress if you knew you would be sitting next to someone who would be engaged in meditation that you do not want to distract? How should we dress when we are praying with each other?

The basilicas and churches of the Holy See still enforce strictly a simple dress code: cover your knees and your shoulders.

Since some active-wear would meet those criteria it bears mentioning that skin-tight clothing is not really suitable for polite company, let alone going to Church.

Dressing appropriately is not the same as dressing expensively. Besides, expensive clothes are not necessarily modest. In the course of praising St. John the Baptist, Jesus mentions that “those who are gorgeously appareled and live in luxury are in kings' courts” (Luke 7,25) yet He also tells the parable of the man expelled from the banquet for failing to wear a wedding garment (Matthew 22,1-14). St. Paul's letter to St. Timothy mentions that Christian women ought to “adorn themselves modestly and sensibly in seemly apparel” (1Timothy 2,9). The very word “modesty” indicates that being modest is the opposite of flaunting our physical attributes.

God bless you.

SACRED MUSIC APPRENTICESHIP

The Sacred Music Apprenticeship at St. John the Beloved provides musical and liturgical training for 11th-12th grade high school students who wish to serve at Mass through their music. The apprenticeship offers two tracks: cantor and organist. In both tracks, students receive regular formal instruction in the theology, history, music and planning of the liturgy as well as practical experience assisting at the liturgy. Graduates of the Apprenticeship will understand their spiritual and practical role in the liturgy, have the training to plan and lead music for the liturgy, and be well-poised to continue further education after high school if they so wish. To apply or if you have questions, please email the Director of Music, James Senson at: jsenson@stjohncatholicmclean.org.

CHRIST HOUSE MEAL CO-COORDINATOR

On the 2nd Friday of every month at Christ House in Alexandria, a team of four volunteers prepares and serves a nutritious, well balanced evening meal for about 75 persons and families from the Alexandria community. One member of the team oversees and coordinates meal preparation. A lead co-coordinator for this ministry is greatly needed. Lead responsibilities will be shared with the other coordinator, so at most, you will be leading the evening meal 6 times per year. Training provided. If you are interested in helping with this important outreach ministry, please contact Michele Mrozek mmrozek@frpark.com.

Each card is designed with a beautiful image and meaningful prayer to accompany them in their time of suffering and sorrow as well as in times of peace and rejoicing.
