HOLY FATHER'S PRAYER INTENTIONS

JUNE 2016

Human Solidarity: That the aged, marginalized, and those who have no one may find—even within the huge cities of the world—opportunities for encounter and solidarity.

Seminarians and Novices: That seminarians and men and women entering religious life may have mentors who live the joy of the Gospel and prepare them wisely for their mission.

IN TESTIMONIUM...

After the many admonitions in the New Testament by St. Paul and St. Peter to greet one another with a holy kiss, the earliest instance of such a gesture being mentioned as taking place in the Sacred Liturgy was only a few decades later. St. Justin Martyr in the First Apology, a letter written in the year 155 to the Roman Emperor Antoninus Pius. Since non-Christians were not permitted to attend the Sacred Liturgy there were lots of rumors floating about what happened when Christians were consuming the Body and Blood of Christ. You can imagine ancient nonbelievers were accusing Christians of cannibalism. Can you imagine what nonsense modern nonbelievers make of St. Peter and St. Paul kissing? I digress.

St. Justin goes into great detail about the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist. In chapter sixty-five of that letter to the Emperor, St. Justin provides a summary of the Mass:

But we, after we have thus washed him who has been convinced and has assented to our teaching, bring him to the place where those who are called brethren are assembled, in order that we may offer hearty prayers in common for ourselves and for the baptized person, and for all others in every place, that we may be counted worthy, now that we have learned the truth, by our works also to be found good citizens and keepers of the commandments, so that we may be saved with an everlasting salvation. Having ended the prayers, we salute one another with a kiss. There is then brought to the president of the brethren bread and a cup of wine mixed with water; and he taking them, gives praise and glory to the Father of the universe, through the name of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, and offers thanks at considerable length for our being counted worthy to receive these things at His hands. And when he has concluded the prayers and thanksgivings, all the people present express their assent by saying Amen.

Peace be with you all that are in Christ Jesus. Amen!

Rev. Christopher J. Pollard

FROM THE DESK OF THE SEMINARIAN ...

She was a young Mohawk girl when she made the request, although dangerously unpopular among her native people, to the Jesuit missionaries that she be taught the Catholic Faith and receive the Sacrament of Baptism. Compelled then to flee her own tribe because of their hostility towards Christians, she travelled to the nearby Jesuit missions in order to practice her new faith freely. Unspectacularly, she died at the age of twenty-four—not as a martyr for the Catholic Faith, but as a simple victim to the smallpox which had left her badly scarred and blind since childhood. Kateri Tekakwitha was declared a saint by Pope Benedict XVI in 2012.

He was the sickly child of parents who would both die before he reached the age of twelve. After unsuccessfully attempting trade and factory work, he was invited to consider religious life. With his particular religious congregation, he was assigned as doorkeeper for a boys' college. In the context of this lowly appointment, he was beloved by many for the kindness, generosity and sincerity with which he greeted visitors. He served humbly as doorkeeper until his death at ninety-one years old; Brother André Bessette was declared a saint by Pope Benedict XVI in 2010.

There is little that is conspicuous in the lives of these two persons; indeed, their simple biographies reveal persons almost scandalously naked of spectacular deeds of holiness and heroism, persons seemingly undeserving of the tremendous dignity of being declared canonized saints. For what reason are these simple souls raised to the public platform of canonized saints?

Lumen Gentium, a document promulgated by the Church following Vatican Council II, repeated the timeless teaching of the Church when it declared: "All the faithful, whatever their condition or state, are called by the Lord, each in his own way, to that perfect holiness whereby the Father Himself is perfect." The vocation to holiness is the primary vocation of each and every baptized Christian: achieving holiness can be daunting when viewed distantly and abstractly, but this universal call—as these saints witness—is perhaps shockingly accessible to us. One thing is certain: God is inviting you to live holiness today, right now, in your own simple way.

Put simply, but not too simply, I think: Kateri is a saint because she lived the Faith despite cultural and family pressure to give it up. André is a saint because he introduced people to God's own love through his joyful presence as a doorkeeper. Why will you be a saint?

St. Kateri Tekakwitha . . . pray for us.

St. André Bessette . . . pray for us.

Jesus, meek and humble of heart, make my heart like unto thine.

Pax et Bonum,

Nicholas Blank, Seminarian
