FROM THE DESK OF THE SEMINARIAN ...

Dear Parishioners of St. John the Beloved,

I just wanted to take a moment to thank you for your warm welcome to the parish. When I arrived here in early June, I did not know what to expect. This was my first parish assignment, and I was nervous to say the least. Yet from the moment I got here I felt very much welcomed and at home. Your generosity and hospitality made that happen, and for that I am incredibly grateful. I particularly appreciate all of you who invited me to your houses for dinner. I really enjoyed getting to talk to you and to know a little about your stories. It is incredibly affirming to a vocation to hear from different parishioners why it is that the faith is meaningful to them. Thanks for sharing!

When people ask me how my summer has been, I often tell them that I couldn't have been placed in a better parish. I don't say that lightly, either. I have been absolutely blessed to serve some of the most beautiful and reverent Liturgies I have ever seen. Seeing the sanctity with which the Holy Mass is celebrated here at St. John's is probably the greatest takeaway I have from my time here at the parish. While I have been blessed to be at some great parishes in my life, my time here has really been something special in terms of teaching me the importance of approaching every Liturgy with the utmost care, love, and devotion.

On one final note, this summer assignment wouldn't have been nearly as wonderful without the amazing guidance and fraternity of the priests here at St. John's. They have been inspirational and holy guides for me during my time here. To say that they have been incredible role models, although true, would be selling them short. Fr. Pollard, Fr. Sina, and Fr. Kabore have really shown me what it is to be a Catholic priest. Their love for the Liturgy clearly shines through all they do, and it has been a blessing to see how this love with which they celebrate the Mass is carried with them throughout each of their days and marks their actions in the office and rectory alike. This parish truly is blessed to be led by such holy men of God. Please continue to keep them in your prayers, that they may always maintain their reverence for the Liturgy and each day find the strength to lay down their lives at the foot of Christ's altar.

Again, I thank each one of you for your welcome and friendship this summer. Be assured you will remain in my prayers. As I head back to seminary, I ask that you keep me and all my fellow seminarians in your prayers as well.

God bless,

Daniel Reuwer
