IN TESTIMONIUM...

“We who are about to die salute you!”

The greeting to the Roman Emperor Claudius in the year 52 A.D. before a particularly elaborate battle of gladiators may have been used only once. The memorable words probably conveyed a kind of desperation on the part of those hoping for clemency from Caesar.

A stout soul can take up the words can make them a Christian prayer. We are all, in a sense, about to die, those of us in danger or under persecution even more so. But we will die gloriously. The world might not honor us at the time, but our end can give glory to God and inspire future Christians. We will die in a state of holiness. We will spend our last days or years with purpose.

How different is this attitude about mortality from the world's, more and more prevalent in the what St. John Paul II called the “Culture of Death”! Sucking the marrow out of life in drunkenness and promiscuity has been the stuff of popular culture since the 1920s, in total denial of death being the beginning of eternity. When death is the end of fun, then there is no limit what “Carpe diem” might mean to a lonely, hungry, thirsty soul. This latest episode in the deterioration of family life is not much more than the inevitable course of a society that condones unlimited pleasure and that has the technological means to deliver it.

If we recognize our lives as being relatively short, we can make and fulfill lifelong commitments and I can give up something significant for the rest of my life. If I realize that my time is limited I can admit that this life is really a valley of tears from which the Lord has rescued me, turning it into a blessed path to heaven.

Visiting the graves of our loved ones can be an antidote. Praying at my father's grave reinvigorates my desire for heaven. Even more so, visiting the tomb of a saint puts us in contact with heaven in a beautifully and strangely human way. Before me is a corpse, while the soul with which it was created lives in heaven. How much more so are we filled with a full measure of the Christian spirit when we have the opportunity to visit the tombs of martyrs or at least venerate their relics!

May God bless us with the grace of living and dying well.
 Fr. Christopher J. Pollard

p.s. My dear mother was diagnosed with advanced pancreatic cancer about two weeks ago and was informed that patients in her condition usually live about six months. Her name is “Ilse” (pronounced ILL-suh). In German it means “vampire slayer”. Just kidding. Please include her and her intentions in your prayers. Our game plan is 1) Be holy. 2) Have fun. 3) Get things in order. Tears come at times of their own choosing and will take care of themselves. In the meantime we have no time anymore for bad desserts!

GOD AND CONTEMPORARY SCIENCE"

Mark your calendars for Friday April 24th as Karlo Broussard, apologist and speaker for the Magis Center, will be presenting a talk entitled "From Nothing to Cosmos: God and Contemporary Science" at St. John the Beloved Catholic Church, 6420 Linway Terrace, McLean, VA 22101, starting at 7:00 p.m. Mr. Broussard will answer some of the most pertinent questions on the mind of modern man: Does faith and science conflict? Does Contemporary Science point to an intelligent creator? What's more reasonable and responsible, a Creator or a physical universe without a Creator? Join Karlo as he takes you on a journey to the very origins of our universe and beyond and explains how anyone, even without a background in physics, can answer these questions with clarity and understand them in a way that promotes dialogue with the inquiring mind of modern man. ## AN EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE

When did I make my last good confession (without having deliberately failed to mention any mortal sin at that time)? Did I fulfill the penance?

Since my last Confession, have I received Communion unworthily or sacrilegiously, aware that I had committed a mortal sin?

1. I am the Lord your God; you shall not have strange gods before me.

Do I love God above all else? Have I been angry with God or lost my faith in Him? Do I embrace all that the Church proposes for my belief in matters of both faith and morals? Have I trivialized my faith by entertaining anti-Catholic teaching or superstition (e.g. horoscopes)? Do I pray daily? Have I yielded to despair? Have I presumed God's mercy?

2. You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain.

Do I use the Lord's name with reverence or have I shown lack of respect for it in conversation or exclamations? Do I show respect for the Blessed Mother and the saints?

3. Keep holy the Sabbath day.

Have I skipped Mass on Sunday or a holy day of obligation? Do I try to avoid unnecessary work on those days? Do I attend Mass with devotion? Do I contribute to the weekly collection? Do I observe the one-hour fast before receiving Holy Communion? Do I perform some act of penance, sacrifice or charity each Friday?

4. Honor your father and your mother.

FOR PARENTS: Have I taken the necessary steps to ensure that my children receive a Catholic formation? Do I encourage them to learn and say their prayers? Do I bring them to Confession? Do I set a good example for them? Do I abuse them in any sense or cause them to lose heart? Do I fail to correct them when necessary?

FOR CHILDREN: Have I been disobedient to my parents? Do I show them respect and affection? Do I neglect either their material or spiritual needs? Do I pray for them? Do I fulfill my responsibilities at home? Have I fought with my brothers or sisters? Have I neglected my studies or cheated in school?

5. You shall not kill.

Have I physically injured anyone? Have I maintained hatred or anger against someone? Have I lost my temper or hurt another with my words? By word or example, was I an occasion of sin for another person? Have I driven recklessly or under the influence of alcohol? Have I neglected my health? Do I abuse drugs, alcohol, or food? Have I procured an abortion or counseled another to do so?

6. You shall not commit adultery.

9. You shall not covet your neighbor's wife.

Have I committed adultery or fornication? Have I engaged in any type of impure act, either alone or with someone else? Do I deliberately engage in lustful thoughts? Do I use impure or vulgar language? Do I practice the virtue of modesty in my attire? Have I viewed pornography?

FOR MARRIED COUPLES: Am I in a valid Catholic marriage (i.e. married in the Church)? Have I been faithful to my spouse in desire and in deed? Have I or my spouse used any method of contraception, especially one that can function as an abortifacient (potentially causing an abortion, e.g. the pill or IUD or "the shot")? Did I encourage my spouse to be sterilized or did I undergo such a procedure? Have I engaged in unchaste sexual acts with my spouse?

7. You shall not steal.

10. You shall not covet your neighbor's Goods.

Have I stolen anything or am I in possession of anything that may have been stolen? Do I live beyond my means or fail to pay my debts? Do I pay my taxes? Have I engaged in any type of fraud or cheating? Have I violated any copyright laws (videos, CDs, computer software)? Am I envious of my neighbor's goods? Have I damaged another's property? Do I give my employer an honest day's work? Do I gamble excessively?

8. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

Have I told lies to avoid embarrassment, enhance my image in the mind of others, or get out of a difficult situation? Have I taken away someone's good name by false accusation or by unnecessarily revealing their faults? Do I engage in rash judgment or gossip? Do I divulge secrets? Do I unjustly question the motives or intentions of others?
