In Testimonium...

30 OCTOBER 2022
31ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
KINGSHIP OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST

Ordinary Form

Wisdom 11,22-12,2
Psalm 145,1-2.8-9.10-11.13.14
2Thessalonians 1,11-2,2
Luke 19,1-10

Extraordinary Form

Colossians 1,12-20
Psalm 71,8.11
Psalm 7,14
John 18,33-37

An indulgence, which is called plenary or partial depending on whether the Church remits all or part of one's temporal punishment, is the remission of temporal punishment due to sins already forgiven. Rather than a short-cut to heaven, the conditions for gaining a plenary indulgence inspire and demand a life of holiness.

Those "usual conditions" are that one must

- * be baptized, not excommunicated, and in the state of grace at least at the time the prescribed works are completed (Norms for Indulgences, 20 1),
- * have at least the general intention of receiving the indulgence (Ibid., 20 2),
- * receive absolution in sacramental confession within several days preceding or following the work (Ibid., 23 2),
- * be free from all attachment to sin (Ibid., 23 1); and one must for each indulgenced work, ideally on the same day as the work:
- * receive Holy Eucharist (Ibid., 23 1-3) and
- * offer prayers for the intentions of the pope (Ibid., 23 1-3).

In the next days we will have many opportunities for indulgences. The Feast of the Kingship of Our Lord Jesus Christ [Ibid., no. 2 ] is the last Sunday of the Year in the Ordinary Form calendar and the last Sunday of October in the Extraordinary Form calendar. On those days the Church permits us a plenary indulgence for reciting publicly the "Act of Dedication of the Human Race to Jesus Christ King of the Universe".

Any of the first eight days of November [Ibid., no. 29 § 1, 1° ] the Church asks us to make a devout visit to a cemetery to obtain a plenary indulgence for the souls in purgatory.

On November 2, the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed [Ibid., no. 29 § 1, 2° ] the Church asks us to visit a church or oratory and recite the Our Father and the Creed to obtain a plenary indulgence for the souls in purgatory.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace.

Rev. Christopher J. Pollard

Raising Peaceful Children in an Anxious Age: How to De-stress Your Lives and Your Children

Even prior to COVID, stress, anxiety, and general mental health concerns were on the rise. While shut downs and isolation exacerbated mental health struggles, as society re-opens, many of us, particularly our children and teens, experience struggles to find a new sense of "normal" and are attempting to resolve the effects of the past two years. As a society we have many comforts and technologies that are supposed to make life easier but continue to experience chronically high levels of stress. Instead of treating sources of stress as obstacles and hurdles, using them as "stepping stones" in our spiritual life, and teaching our children to do the same, can actually bring us closer to God. Learn how approaching stress or anxiety with curiosity and compassion and engaging in the spiritual life of the Church can help you and your children experience a greater sense of God's peace.

REQUIESANT IN PACEM

On November 2nd we commemorate all the faithful departed, and furthermore the entire month of November is dedicated to praying for the repose of the holy souls in Purgatory. Coming up are some traditions at our parish:

All Souls' Novena: please remember to submit well in advance the names of the departed you wish to be added to the novena. Their names will be placed on the altar from Nov 2nd through Nov 10th, and the sacrifice of the mass will be offered for their repose. If the sacristan has time and energy, she calligraphies the names onto index cards for the altar.

The Book of the Dead: on the last Saturday of October an empty binder will be placed at the feet of the statue of the Sacred Heart - He Who mercifully has a close connection to the souls in Purgatory. You are encouraged to write any names of the dead, and then during November folks can kneel and pray for the repose of their souls. This Book of the Dead will remain there for prayer until December 1st.

In December, the prayer intention papers from the book and novena will all be burned in the quarterly Holy Fire with myrrh incense and De Profundis (Psalm 129/130).
