HOLY FATHER'S PRAYER INTENTIONS

JULY

Evangelization – Priests and their Pastoral Ministry

That priests, who experience fatigue and loneliness in their pastoral work, may find help and comfort in their intimacy with the Lord and in their friendship with their brother priests.

IN TESTIMONIUM...

Even though you might prefer a hiatus from matters sacramental, theological and moral in view of the All-Star break...

we know that the forces of evil do not take a break from sewing confusion and discouragement.

In commemoration of the 50th anniversary of Humanae Vitae, the Office of Family Life of the Diocese of Arlington invited Professor Chad Pecknold, Ph.D. to host a Twitter discussion entitled "HV50: Ask the Question." The discussion started July 1st and will continue until the 24th, culminating in a Twitter symposium on July 25. At a time of great social and moral confusion, Humanae Vitae confirms the beauty of the Church's teaching on married love and the transmission of life.

On July 25, 1968

Pope Paul VI issued Humanae Vitae from St. Peter's Basilica in Rome. The answer he gave to the question John XXIII had asked stunned a world which had already decided on a different answer.

FROM THE SEMINARIAN...

This week I wish to expound on the topic of the afterlife, to encourage meditating on Hell, and to discuss various ways we can avoid going there. St. Leonard of Port Maurice preached that most people do not go to Hell because they necessarily deserved Hell, rather they go to Hell because they do not deserve to go to Heaven. https://www.olrl.org/snt\_docs/fewness.shtml St. Frances de Sales meditation on Hell is here for our reflection, <http://www.cfpeople.org/books/DeSales/MEDITATEp7.htm> In addition, a talk on St. Ignatius' meditation on Hell here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ibZwxRr1uew>

Like I mentioned last week, prayer is vitally important on our faith journey. Our Lord never promised an easy road for those who choose to follow Him and every day we must guard ourselves against sin and reject our culture's celebration of all that is evil. Consider the Rosary, which is a very powerful tool to help us get to Heaven, our Blessed Mother made 15 promises to those who prayed it every day found at this link. <http://themotholyrosary.com/15promises.htm>

Prayer is transformative, but there are also other methods available to us, to make us holy people and worthy of heaven.

One example is Louis de Montfort's total consecration to Jesus through Mary. <https://www.catholiccompany.com/content/total-consecration-jesus-through-mary.cfm> Find a date, for example July 20th, the Feast of the Queenship of Mary, and begin the consecration. This will dramatically improve your prayer life and from then on you will receive many graces. St. Joseph, is also someone to whom we as Catholics can turn to for help on our journey. <https://www.catholic.org/prayers/prayer.php?p=855>

St. Teresa of Avila said that anything she asked of St. Joseph, he granted her, so I ask him every day to increase my faith and to help me become a better Catholic. Once you have made prayer an essential part of your life you'll experience a renewed joy and zeal for the Lord, and grace to persevere in holiness.

Our fallen nature makes sin very attractive to us and it's only through prayer and the sacraments that we remain in Christ, resist sin and witness to Christ in this fallen world. Hell is a truth we ignore at our peril and meditating on it is important for our salvation as it keeps our focus on Jesus. We need to stay close to Jesus and consecrating ourselves, as mentioned earlier, is one way we can do this. We can also help each other by correcting sinful behavior, always mindful of doing it with compassion and kindness (James 5: 19-20), for what we fail to correct in others when we had the chance, we will answer for.

Charles C. Wilton
