Policy for the Implementation of Traditionis Custodes in the Diocese of Arlington

On 16 July of last year Pope Francis issued an Apostolic Letter entitled Traditionis Custodes concerning the celebration of Holy Mass in the more ancient Roman Rite.

On 29 July of this year Bishop Burbidge published his implementation of the Apostolic Letter Traditionis Custodes for the Diocese of Arlington. Five parishes have been granted permission by the bishop to continue to offer the Traditional Mass at locations other than their parish churches.

St. John the Baptist in Front Royal will be offering the TLM at Chelsea Academy.

Sacred Heart in Winchester will be offering the old Mass in Sacred Heart Academy.

Holy Trinity in Gainesville will be offering the Usus Antiquior at Renaissance Montessori School.

St. Patrick in Fredericksburg will be offering the Extraordinary Form in their parish hall.

St. John the Apostle in Leesburg already was using their historic church, which they will continue to do.

The parishes in the Diocese of Arlington have been granted permission by the Holy See to offer the Holy Mass with the 1962 Missale Romanum:

St. Anthony Mission in St. George,

St. Rita Church in Alexandria, and

St. John the Beloved.

This permission will be reviewed in two years. Among the additional expectations is the requirement of the Dicastery for Divine Worship that "the parish may not publish the times of the Mass in the usus antiquior in the bulletin or on the parish website or social media sites." As of September 8 of this year, we will no longer publish any Mass times in the bulletin or on the parish website or social media sites. We shall have a large display in the entrance to St. John the Beloved showing our liturgical schedule. Moreover we will encourage the faithful to reach us by telephone or by email to find out who is offering what Mass on which day.

St. John Vianney, pray for us!

Dobbs v. Jackson and the Culture of Life

The Supreme Court's decision to overturn Roe v. Wade came as a shock to many. Dobbs v. Jackson has provoked responses from joy to outrage and even violence. But it is clear that many Americans are unaware of what Roe actually held and thus are uncertain about the consequences of Dobbs for abortion law in the U.S.

Join the John Paul II Institute for a discussion of the Dobbs decision to help Catholics to "read the signs of the times and interpret them in the light of the Gospel." Our speakers will shed light on the meaning of this landmark decision for U.S. law and culture, in view of the Church's understanding of the dignity of every human person and the sanctity of human life. Talks will present the history of abortion law in the United States and will look ahead to new opportunities and challenges for the pro-life movement.
