IN TESTIMONIUM...

15th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

6th SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Sunday 12 July 2020

In a world without God, racial hubris and interracial animosity are inevitable. Frequent war is our fallen condition. If the Bible had not identified the origin of Original Sin (Read Genesis 2,15-17;3,1-34) we would have created a mythology to account for it. Humans, made male and female in the image and likeness of God, are creatures capable of tremendous beauty and astounding brutality. Created with a desire for all that is good, true and beautiful, we threaten everything lovely and noble by virtue of our selfishly insisting on having what we want when we want it.

Even if we acknowledge Adam and Eve as our common ancestors, humanity is not characterized by brotherhood. Read Genesis 4,1-16 about Cain and Abel. If there is a human "family" it is dysfunctional most of the time and it is incapable of rescuing itself. By nature we are competitors except for when we view another with sympathy or regard the other as a partner in a common endeavor. Prosperity has a way of pacifying and blinding us. Communism promises the impossibility of universal and indiscriminate satisfaction. Capitalism banks on everyone accumulating enough wealth that we leave each other alone. The former is evil. The latter is inadequate for true peace.

The human responses to racism range from merely keeping people separate to insisting that people be saints without the aid of grace. The spiritual remedies to our predicament begin with Baptism, when we become adopted children of God, heaven becomes our inheritance, and former enemies can live as brothers and sisters. In a Christian worldview, racial identity comes with dignity and humility while every soul is seen as being worth the invaluable price of the Blood of the Savior. Nations maintain their personalities, strengths and weaknesses. But if we love father or mother more than the Lord we are not worthy of the Kingdom (Matthew 10,37-38). In that Kingdom of Heaven we will see the fulfillment of the prophecies portraying a New Jerusalem in which all peoples and nations will worship the Lord. May the Precious Blood of Jesus save us from ourselves.

God bless you.

Fr. Christopher J. Pollard

"A new commandment I give to you,
that you love one another;
even as I have loved you, that you also love one another.
By this all men will know that you are my disciples,
if you have love for one another."
John 13:34-35

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

HELP A PARISHIONER

A young St. John parishioner born in 1997 is in need of a kidney donor. If you or someone you know is open to becoming a kidney donor, regardless of where the potential donor lives, please visit the website for the MedStar Georgetown Transplant Institute:

<https://mgti.donorscreen.org/register/donate-kidney>

The young man's name and date of birth, which will be needed for registration, can be provided by Fr. Pollard (fr.pollard@stjohncatholicmclean.org). Donors can be reimbursed for lost wages and other expenses. Since the recipient is 23 years old the preferred donor age is between 21 and 49. However doctors are allowing older candidates to be tested since the finding of such a qualifying living donor could make available the needed transplant through the Paired Kidney Exchange.

PUBLIC MONTHLY ROSARIES

Come out and pray for the Peace of Christ, the conversion of sinners, and the triumph of the Immaculate Heart! Our nation is in need of your prayers and witness.

From May to October, on the 13th of every month there are public rosaries and hymns prayed in the front parking lot of St John the Beloved. Times are 10am, 12pm, 2pm, and 4pm.

Next date is Tomorrow, Monday, July 13th.
Questions? Contact Ann Thunder 703-472-7151

FROM THE SEMINARIAN

Escapism in a Pandemic: A Resolution

Regarding the aforementioned minimalism, we know “Is it ok?” regarding hobbies is not the right question. Aiming for purgatory is more than risky- for it is not a final destination. May as well say, “I plan to spend the night in the middle of Rte 66.” Let us ask then, “Is *insert hobby here* not only permitted but smiled upon by God?!” God, as He wills, silences and stills the devils trying to convince us that certain tales, media, forums, or styles are only for *insert some other age-group than our own*. Please, Lord smash those thoughts- for You are our unbreakable Rock, Jesus. Examples: Young (-ish) adults and younger: respectfully ask parents (or mentors) to read a blog/book/comic with you or to you! All may benefit, viz., God may be able to better communicate Himself to us- He is quite Gandalf-like and Aragorn-ish! Parents: please stoop. Stoop for your kids! Ask them what they follow. If you want to join- them, try a Christendom alum featured in a 2017 Herald article (benhatke.com) or Voyage Comics & Publishing shop.voyagecomics.com. (I am unaffiliated.) If you are able to be with/near/serve in some way the elderly or sick, prayerfully consider reading to the aged as a ministry. Let’s cherish God’s Doors in the Walls of the World (Kreeft) and pray for artists, and realize that any world we discover/relate to in a healthy, prayer sprung/sustained degree, is from God! Thank Him for it by committing MORE time to prayer each day, adding a pilgrimage or retreat to your holiday plans, exploring that world WITH Him, aka: meditate, ready to give way to Contemplation. Make room in your heart for expressions of affection- you to God, and allow God to love you and speak to you. AND, resolve to respond! Much progress is lost by refraining from making and sticking to penitential practices or prayer routines. God wants you to have a routine so He can interrupt it and surprise you. Much like He did with Mary (the Annunciation) and John (the Baptism is the Jordan). The pilgrimages and retreats are the mountaintop experiences where God is waiting to meet you or challenge you, whatever You need, He will provide. Don’t trade that for a cheap book or cheaper Netflix series. Rather, via Fr. Maximilian M. Dean and like artists, Lord, teach us to keep in mind You/Your love for us, and that You’ve bought is with Your Blood.

PRAY FOR THE UNBORN AND THE ELDERLY

TIRED OF BEING COOPED UP?

Our Lord would love to have your company for even just one hour. There are many slots open for adorers. The church is never full during adoration so “social distancing” is not a concern. Jesus said to the apostles in the garden: “Could you not keep watch for one hour?” Our time is precious but God is more so!

Consider spending precious time with our Lord in prayer and offering that time for the need of a family member or friend. Let them know you were holding them up in prayer by sending a Eucharistic Adoration Card with the following notation:

Card with the following notation:

I have made a private Holy Hour before the Blessed Sacrament for you and for all the intentions which are dear to your heart.

Each card is designed with a beautiful image and meaningful prayer, appropriate to occasions of suffering and sorrow as well as peace and rejoicing.

THE WORD BOOKSTORE

The Word Bookstore is now closed for the summer, but will reopen after Sunday Masses after Labor Day. We can open during the summer by appointment only. We do have copies of the July and August Magnificat if you need one. If you would like to shop please contact us at theword@stjohncatholicmclean.org. Please indicate a convenient time for you to stop by and we will confirm the appointment with you.

IN THE DIOCESE OF ARLINGTON

JULY 12 STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"The seed sown among thorns is the one who hears the word but then the cares of the world and the lure of riches choke the word and it bears no fruit." (Matthew 13:22)

Does the lure of riches and material goods choke God out of your life? Are you so caught up in earthly activities that you have no time for God? Gratitude and generosity are virtues that we should strive to do on a daily basis. Every decision we make either takes us one step closer to God or one step further away. What we receive at Mass every Sunday should be shared with others all the other days of the week as well.

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Let everyone heed what they hear." Is the Lord inviting you to know, love and serve Him more closely in the priesthood or consecrated life. Write to michael.isenberg@arlingtondiocese.org, or call Father Michael Isenberg at (703) 841-2514,

RUN, WALK, CHEER, DONATE AND PRAY TO SUPPORT OUR SEMINARIANS

Race season is getting underway, and so is this campaign to support our future priests of our diocese in the Race for Seminarians campaign. Runners and walkers of all levels can get sponsored for their races; cheer squads can encourage them as they log the miles, donors can pledge to support specific runners, and prayer warriors can back up their efforts. Visit ArlingtonDiocese.org/Run to learn about all these options and start building your team today!

STATE OF THE COMMON HEALTH

Please remember to donate blood if you are able.

Right now, American Red Cross faces a severe blood shortage due to an unprecedented number of blood drive cancellations during this coronavirus outbreak.
